DETAILED ACTION

New grounds of rejection are contained within this Office Action. Accordingly this action has been made Non-Final.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1 – 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent Application Publication No. 2003/0051737 to Hickie et al.

In regard to claims 1 – 9, Hickie et al. disclose method for determining the level of sedation in a patient who is receiving a conscious sedation drug comprising: applying a first vibration stimuli to a patient who has received, is receiving, or is about to receive a conscious-sedation drug, the vibration stimuli comprising vibratory pulses (auditory stimulus) wherein each pulse is separated from a prior pulse by a time interval, and the time interval between the pulses can be varied, and wherein each pulse is applied with a predetermined duration; instructing the patient to respond to the vibration stimuli; and monitoring a patient's response to the vibration stimuli using processing means to determine the patient's level of sedation [0045]. Hickie et al. disclose applying additional vibration stimuli that can be the same as the first stimuli. The time interval between the pulses and/or the duration of the pulses in the first stimuli is varied. The intensity of the pulses and the additional stimuli can be adjusted to be greater or less than the vibratory pulses of the first vibration stimuli. The vibratory pulse is an intensity modulation and/or frequency modulation pulse and the vibratory pulse is an auditory or acoustic pulse [0045].
